Father Damien de Veuster: The Leper
Priest of Molokai

BACKGROUND: The time is the 1850's, when a fierce epidemic of leprosy, (now called Hansen's disease), swept through the Hawaiian Islands. 8,000 people who had the disease were forcibly removed from their homes and shipped off to a wild, uninhabited peninsula on the island of Molokai, where no one free of the disease was allowed to step foot—until Father Damien.

Actor Reid Sasser plays Father Damien, a young Catholic priest who insisted it was his life mission to care for the lepers of Molokai, all but forgotten in their isolated colony. What Father Damien found on the island, what he experienced there, is a moving and inspiring story of one man's fight to bring the love of God to a shunned and forsaken group of people. His life story will make you laugh and make you cry. Come be inspired by a man who truly lived his faith and was elevated to sainthood on October 11, 2009!
